Got big Labor Day weekend plans? Make them smaller, and make them safe.

We're still in a pandemic. People are still getting sick, suffering, and dying.

While the situation has improved lately, the fight isn't over yet. Take precautions and help us beat #COVID19

Our plan is to take over laboratory responsibility using a private vendor Wednesday, 7/15. This will speed results to equal to what private insurance are experiencing. For the first few days, @Parkland will only be able to do 500 per day at Ellis Davis.
